Sergeant Sidney Hiavac of the East 125th street police station for a Congressional medal yesterday as a reward for the reacue of two boys from the East River last March. Representative Isaac Siegel pinned the medal to the sergeant's house in the presence of 500 persons in Thomas Jefferson Park, The Bronx.

Hiavac had been in line for praise and compliment previously. On St. Patrick's day, 1509, he stooped a runaway, probably eaving the life of a physician.

On March 22, Hlavac, while at East 112th street, heard that two boys had fallen off the wall there. He ran to the dock discarding his heavy overcost a he went, and dived. The boys—Ni—olt Macchio, 13, and Louis Guzzo, 13, both of 326 East 113th street—ware going down for the last time when the sergeant reached them. Havac's act, reported in the customary matter of fact style of the Police Department, nearly cost him his life.

SALLY" HAS HALLOWE'EN BALL musical comedy "Sally," which takes place to night at the New Amsteram Theatre, was celebrated on Saturday night by a Hallowe'en supper and day night by a Hallowe'en supper and ball on the Midnight Frolic roof after the close of the performance. Every member of the company, including Leon Errol and Miss Marilyn Miller, was present. The Frolic roof was especially decorated with pumpkins and fodder shocks and each member of the company was permitted to invite two guests. An orchestra furnished the music for dancing and a supper was served at 4 o'clock in the morning.

LOVING CUP FOR PAVLOWA. One of the interesting features of dme. Anna Pavlowa's seventh annual silver loving cup to the dancer by the National Children's Service Club, which was organized to promote the dancing talent of children throughout the coun-try. The children who were selected at the national ballet and toe dancing ex-hibitions held in Carnegie Hall last spring will be grouped on the stage when Health Commissioner Copeland will present the cup to Mme. Pavlowa.

FRED STONE'S DOG MISSING. More than a hundred friends and took part in a search yesterday in Forest Hills hoping to get some trace of Jack, the Airedale dog belonging to Dorothy Stone, his daugnter. No trace of the animal, however, could be found, it having been missing from the Stone home since last Wednesday.

The comedian is in Chicago and has wired that no expense be spared to recover the dog, which is 12 years old, and has been his daughter's companion during that time. Mrs. Stone has offered a reward for Jack's return.

FFPROCTOR WOULD YOU DO THIS Frank Dobson & Sirens, Frank & Ceddy Sabini, Holmes & La Vere, esephine Davis, Jones & Jones, ack Mariey, La Dora & Beckman, Toyland Follies. FOR THE MAN YOU LOVE?

Would you sacrifice a thousand lives for one? ELSIE Napoleon did it; the Kaiser did it and still lives. Countless conquerors in days gone by spilled carnage and death throughout the world, but took precious good care of their own skins. But these were mere men, swayed by ruthless ambition. Would a WOMAN do likewise?

The terrible tragedy of a woman's love, the mad, unreasoning power which influences her to sacrifice EVERYTHING for the one man she really loves, was never illustrated more forcefully than right now at the Astor Theatre, Broadway and 45th Street, in the great cyclonic, catastrophic climax of Goldwyn's sensational screen spectacle "Theodora." Forty lions turned loose into a crowded arena among thousands of people, to satisfy the whim of a love-mad woman who hoped by this diversion to halt the threatened execution of her lover; there you have the most startling and terrific climax ever

You see the great, gaunt, hungry lions turned loose from their pens, leaping into the midst of terrified people, carrying death in their langs, while on a dais, sale from danger, far beyond the reach of the lions, sits the proud, imperious Theodora only to be spurned later and denounced as a wanton by the very man for whom she sacrificed a thousand lives.

Never was there such a moving picture as "Theodora." It is the sensation of New York to-day. At the Astor Theatre. twice daily, 2:30 and 8:30 P. M. If you don't see "Theodora" you might as well stop going to see motion pictures.
